

Qualifications

Mr. Longino has over 27 years experience in the pipeline industry ranging from operations, maintenance, construction, special project administration, and personnel management. He has demonstrated skills and knowledge to manage multi faceted jobs, develop and execute complex job plans, develop and implement safety strategies, develop and execute spending plans, administer administrative policies, and interact with diverse work groups.

Work HistoryDec. 2002-Aug. 2004: Project Coordinator

WKM Consultancy, LLC

Develop and execute job plans for pipeline upgrades, including welder testing, production weld evaluation, excavation, pipe laying, coating inspection, backfill, hydrostatic testing, and as-built drawing updates. Intimately involved in clearing and recommissioning of said pipelines. Worked in Texas, Louisiana, and Kansas.

Oct. 31, 2001: Retirement from Dow Pipeline Co.2001-1998: Supervisor/Coach

Dow Pipeline Co.; Angleton, Texas

Change management, work process implementation, activity coordination, Dow/Union Carbide Integration planning/execution, pipeline construction.

1998-1983: Supervisor

Dow Pipeline Co., Interplant Pipeline Operations

Cost planning /execution, job planning/execution, emergency response, environmental incident response/remediation, production planning, pipeline construction, new employee & contractor safety orientation, safety observations and intervention.

1982-1983: Senior Safety Engineer

Dow Chemical Co. Energy Systems

Safety plans development and implementation, job plan approvals, safety observations and intervention, incident investigation and action plan development.

1982-1977: Pipeline Technician

Dow Pipeline Co., Interplant Pipeline Operations

Field coordination and job execution, pipe fabrication, welding inspection, excavation inspection, shut down and production coordination, contract administration, environmental incident response and remediation.

1977-1968: Industrial Security

Dow Chemical Co.

General plant security and contractor entry processing.

1968-1965: United States Army; Georgia, Texas, Republic of Vietnam.

Education

Brazosport College; 1973 -1975: 57 semester hours general studies and social sciences.

Training

Mr. Longino has attended numerous Department of Transportation (DOT) training seminars and Office of Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) trainings while at Dow. He further developed and executed varied training sessions internal to Dow, both technical in nature as well as administrative. While working for WKM Consultancy, LLC, Mr. Longino not only coordinated project execution for clients but also authored client procedures to clear the pipelines of products and re-commission same, authored operations procedures, and trained company operations technicians in the execution of those procedures.